

Raphael Tay Choon Tien

Lee Hishammuddin Allen & Gledhill is pleased to welcome Raphael Tay Choon Tien as the newest partner in its Corporate Department, wef 15 October 2018.

Raphael has been practising law for more than 30 years, with extensive regional experience in corporate and commercial law, mergers and acquisitions, and information technology law and a strong interest in startups. His keen interest in and vast knowledge of the economics and politics of Southeast Asia have led to many invitations to present papers and conduct conferences organised by both the private and public sectors. He is also a registered trade mark agent and a notary public.

Raphael obtained his BA (Hons) in Law and Politics from Bournemouth University in 1983. He also holds a post-graduate diploma in South East Studies from the University of Kent, Canterbury. He was admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 1986.

The partners believe that his experience and market presence will be a good addition to the firm. LH-AG
