

Crystal Wong Wai Chin

Crystal has an active arbitration practice throughout Malaysia, Singapore and the ASEAN region, with an emphasis on electricity, conventional and renewable energy generation, water supply, and complex infrastructure & engineering projects. She is the trusted advisor for clients ranging from utility companies, independent power producers, government-linked companies, multinational corporations, and Chinese state-owned enterprises. Her experience includes an extended stint with a leading international utilities conglomerate. Crystal regularly accepts briefs from overseas clients, in particular from China. Fluent in Mandarin, she is one of the key drivers of the firm's China Desk.

Crystal is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb) and is on the panel of arbitrators for the Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC). She also holds numerous committee appointments, including as a committee member of the Arbitration Committee for the Bar Council of Malaysia and committee member of the Belt & Road Committee for the Young Practitioners Group of the AIAC. In addition, she is the regional ambassador of the Hong Kong International of Arbitration Centre's HK45, the ambassador of the ICC Belt and Road Commissions, and director of the CI Arb, Malaysia branch.

Crystal was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2011 and is a member of the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn. She was admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2013.

Jason Tan Jia Xin

Jason's primary area of practice is income tax and customs litigation, trade remedy investigations, tax and customs investigations and trade facilitation.

He has been involved in many of the largest income tax and customs disputes before all levels of court on major points of tax law. The disputes involve issues on transfer pricing, withholding tax, income recognition, capital allowance, reinvestment allowance, double taxation agreements, deductibility of expenditure, excise valuation and customs procedures.

Jason also represents a sizeable number of manufacturers in local and foreign trade remedy investigations such as anti-dumping, safeguard duties, countervailing duties and anti-circumvention investigations.

He is a regular speaker in the tax scene on issues relating to income tax and customs.
