

Cindy Sim Xin Yee

Cindy commenced practice with the firm's dispute resolution department, handling banking litigation work, before transitioning to the Corporate Department.

As a banking and finance practitioner, Cindy has acted for local and foreign financial institutions and borrowers (including multinational corporations, listed issuers, and government-linked companies). She has advised on domestic and cross-border financing, on a bilateral and syndicated basis, under both conventional and Islamic financing.

Cindy also has experience in the issuance of corporate bonds and Sukuk, property development matters, and financial compliance and regulatory issues. Fluent in English, Mandarin and Bahasa Malaysia, she is one of the liaison persons with LHAG's China Desk.

Cindy was admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2012.

CK Lung

CK Lung is a litigator with experience in various contentious matters involving domestic and international arbitration, corporate, commercial and securities. He has appeared at all tiers of the courts, and now specialises in intellectual property litigation. His primary focus is on contentious intellectual property matters such as trademark, patent, industrial design and copyright infringements, as well as breach of confidence and trade secrets. He also advises clients on intellectual property rights and enforcement.

He is a regular contributor of the Malaysian Civil Procedure (2015 & 2018 Editions) and also co-author of the Law and Practice of Corporate Insolvency in Malaysia (2019).

Lung read law at Cardiff University, UK and is a member of the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn. He also holds a degree in Professional Accountancy (RMIT University, Australia) and a Master of Laws (Cardiff University).

He was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2013 and admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in September 2014. LH-AG

