

Shaleni R. Anpualagan

Well versed in civil, commercial and general litigation, Shaleni has advised on matters ranging from administration of estate, trust and planning approval appeals to defamation and garnishment.

She has represented various multinational corporations, government-linked companies, and hospitals on employment disputes in the Industrial Court, the Labour Court and the High Court. She also handles contested probate as well as complex trust and estate matters.

Shaleni graduated from Northumbria University in the UK with First Class Honours and was one of two top students awarded the 2005 Oxford University Press Law Prize. She was admitted as an advocate and solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2011.

E: sra@lh-ag.com | T: +604 299 9668 | F: +604 299 9628

Qualifications

- LLB (Hons), Northumbria University
- Certificate in Legal Practice
- Advocate & Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya

Practice Areas

- Employment and Industrial Dispute
- Administration of Estate and Trust
- Contested Probate
- Planning Approval Appeals (Appeal Board)
- Injunction
- Family
- Winding Up
- Bankruptcy
- Small Estate
- Judicial Review
- Construction Claims
- Negligence Claims
- Reviewing contractual documents
- Foreclosure
- Caveat
- Corporate litigation
- Defamation
- Goods Sold and Delivered
- Breach of Contract
- Distress, Writ Seizure & Sales, Garnishment, Judgment Debtor Summons

Notable Transactions

- Advised and acted for a notable sports association in Malaysia in an Industrial Court Claim on constructive dismissal.
- Defended a port operator in a major tenancy dispute and successfully set aside an injunction and disqualified Plaintiff's solicitor firm (Tanjong Marina Management Sdn Bhd v Penang Port Sdn Bhd [2014] 10 MLJ 120)
- Represented Malaysia's leading telecommunication company in various Industrial Court hearings involving misconduct, sexual harassment, and constructive dismissal.
- Reviewed employment contracts of physicians/medical practitioners for a notable Hospital.
- Represented a heavily contested probate involving parties from different jurisdictions.
- Defended several suits for a well-known golf club in a suit by their members.
- Defended an architect firm in a professional negligence suit.
- Represented reputable developers in Appeal Board hearings.
- Represented a well-known company in bringing a defamation suit.