

Tiffany Low Jia Qi

Tiffany is a Senior Associate in the firm's Dispute Resolution, Regulatory and Compliance Practice Groups. She read law at the University of the West of England, Bristol and was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2019. She was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2021.

Tiffany works closely with Partner Hoi Jack S'ng, where she has developed significant experience in civil and commercial disputes. She has represented a broad range of clients, including financial institutions, liquidators, multinational corporations, companies, and individuals, providing practical advice on complex legal matters and handling disputes across various industries.

Her fluency in both spoken and written Chinese, as well as proficiency in Korean, sets Tiffany apart, enabling clear and effective communication with clients from diverse cultural backgrounds. Her linguistic abilities have played a key role in building trust and providing tailored legal solutions to her clients.

In addition to her practice, Tiffany has contributed to legal publications, including Bullen & Leake & Jacob's Malaysian Precedents of Pleadings (2023) and The Malaysian Civil Procedure (2024), both published by Sweet & Maxwell. Tiffany remains focused on her professional development and is dedicated to providing practical legal solutions for her clients.
